

As a flight attendant I'm totally against cell phone use on airplanes. I think it will first of all compromise safety and secondly be an unacceptable intrusion of privacy, space and comfort level while in flight. Please! Do not approve the use of cell phones on airplanes. Air rage could definitely result between passengers annoyed by phone conversations. There's no where to go on an airplane to get away from this annoyance.